

Neighbors of
The George Washington University's Mount Vernon Campus

are invited to attend an

OPEN COMMUNITY MEETING

to continue the community-based planning process that will shape the 2010 Mount Vernon Campus Plan

Thursday, July 9, 2009

7:30 pm

In the Webb Building on GW's Mount Vernon Campus 2100 Foxhall Road, N.W.

The meeting will focus on the topics of light and noise as well as offer additional opportunity for discussion on community issues identified during the kick-off meeting, key design principles and potential campus development sites.
