

EXHIBIT D

Community-Based Planning Process: Meetings & Events

The following summarizes the community-based planning process that shaped the creation of the 2010 Mount Vernon Campus Plan.

GW/Community Meeting #1

Date/time: April 20, 2009 at 7:30 p.m.

Topic: Project consultants (EE&K Architects, VIKA Capitol, and EDAW) joined staff from GW's Office of Real Estate to work with members of the community in identifying key issues related to the development of the 2010 Mount Vernon Campus Plan – including campus land use and development.

GW/Community Meeting #2

Date/time: May 7, 2009 at 7:30 p.m.

Topic: Project consultants (EE&K Architects, VIKA Capitol, and EDAW) joined staff from GW's Office of Real Estate to work with members of the community in identifying key issues related to campus land use and development. The community feedback gathered from the discussion assisted in the development of place-based design principles presented at the June 11, 2009 community meeting.

GW/Community Meeting #3

Date/time: June 11, 2009 at 7:30 p.m.

Topic: Project consultants EE&K Architects joined staff from GW's Office of Real Estate to share draft place-based design principles regarding campus land use and initial discussions regarding locations of future campus development.

GW/Community Meeting #4

Date/time: July 9, 2009 at 7:30 p.m.

Topic: Project consultants EE&K Architects joined staff from GW's Office of Real Estate to discuss community comments/concerns regarding campus light and noise as well as discussions regarding locations of future campus development.

GW/Community Meeting #5

Date/time: August 13, 2009 at 7:30 p.m.

Topic: Project consultants (EE&K Architects, VIKA Capitol, and EDAW) joined staff from GW's Office of Real Estate to discuss community comments/concerns regarding landscaping, storm water management and sustainability and further discuss proposed locations of future campus development.

GW/Community Meeting #6

Date/time: September 10, 2009 at 7:30 p.m.

Topic: Project consultants (EE&K Architects and Wells + Associates) joined staff from GW's Office of Real Estate to discuss the topics of traffic and population counts as well as further review of previously identified community issues.

GW/Community Meeting #7

Date/time: October 22, 2009 at 7:30 p.m.

Topic: Presentation of the draft 2010 Mount Vernon Campus Plan by GW staff and the Project consultants (EE&K Architects, VIKA Capitol, Wells + Associates and EDAW), including a specific proposal for future campus population counts.

GW/Community Meeting #8

Date/time: November 5, 2009 at 7:00 p.m.

Topic: Project consultants (EE&K Architects, VIKA Capitol, Wells + Associates and EDAW) joined staff from GW's Office of Real Estate to discuss community comments/concerns regarding the draft 2010 Mount Vernon Campus Plan, presented on October 22, 2009. EE&K Architects also presented additional information on heights of proposed future developments.

All meetings were held at The George Washington University Mount Vernon Campus, either in the Webb Building or Post Hall.

Meeting announcements were circulated via advertisements in the Current newspapers as well as via neighborhood announcements thru Palisades Listserv, Foxhall Citizens Association, and GW's own neighborhood listserv (comprised of individuals who have attended past quarterly community meetings) and invitations to the ANC representative for the campus. The meetings were also advertised on GW's neighborhood website (<http://www.neighborhood.gwu.edu>).

Following each meeting, meeting materials were posted to the above neighborhood website and remain publicly available for review.