Community Concerns Report: Student Behavioral Response
2009 - 2010
Complaints include reports that are submitted through the Community Concern Line, the George Washington University Police Department and/or the Office of Community Relations. Complaints can include multiple callers reporting the same incident and/or individuals submitting more than one report about an incident.
As complaints can include multiple callers reporting the same incident and/or individuals submitting more than one report about an incident, this data reflects the actual number of incidents the George Washington University responded to in the 2009-2010 and 2008-2009 academic years.
Total Number of Incidents On and Off Campus

This data represents the number of on campus and off campus incidents as reported through the Community Concerns Hotline by neighbors as well as GW students, faculty and staff.

Total = 173
Initiatives such as the Quiet Zone Campaign and Building Manager’s meetings have contributed to the decrease in street and apartment complex incidents. In addition to continuing these initiatives, OCSA and GICR have developed new initiatives to address the number of incidents in townhouses.
Noise incidents include loud talking, music, transient noise and parties originating from inside residence hall rooms, private townhouses and private apartments as well as on public streets and sidewalks.

Property damage incidents involve any theft of or damage to neighborhood property.

Disorderly Behavior incidents include public arguments, playing ball in the street, suspected marijuana use and harassment.

Other incidents include parking violations, suspicious packages and/or individuals.
